In addition, the event host would agree to pay the RFPRA a one dollar ($1) per person impact fee based off of walkup and independent agent/online ticket sales beginning at the 2001+ attendee levels. Events with <2000 attendees will not incur this impact fee.

All rental fees should be paid prior to the event while all impact fees and proof of sales will be due no later than three (3) days after the event completion.

Included in the changes would be a mandatory post-event meeting with the RFPRA team to review any concerns, issues, or areas of opportunity going forward.

Additionally, the RFPRA retains the right to operate as a concession vendor at all events, providing drinks up to and including a full menu.

As Coca-Cola is the primary sponsor of Ridge Ferry Park, it will be stipulated to the organizers of all events that only Coca-Cola beverages will be sold exclusively within the park.
